

BUSINESS MEN ENGAGE IN BITTER STREET FIGHT

ERNEST R. RYAN IS STABBED IN STREET FIGHT

A lowly steam pressing machine that was said to have outlived its usefulness has turned on enough "steam" to so heat up two of the city's most prominent young tailors that the resulting hot blood involved them in a street fight Wednesday night with the result that one is in the city hospital and the other faces charges of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Ernest Ryan, 40, 625 Udel street, proprietor of the Capitol tailor shop 206 N. Capitol avenue, told Radio Patrolmen Hopson and Jones who responded to an emergency call sent in by anxious friends of the pair, that he had suffered a deep knife wound in the right shoulder, infected by Stanley Scott, owner of the Supreme Tailor shop, 312 West, Twenty-first St., following an argument and fist fight as the two met at Twenty-first street and Boulevard Place early that evening.

Scott Held Under High Bond

Ryan managed to make his way to the office of Dr. E. D. Moten, Indiana Avenue where he was picked up by the officers and sent to the city hospital. Scott was arrested later near the scene of the fight and charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, under high bond.

Eye witnesses to the affair told police that the two men met on the corner and in the midst of a heated argument over a pressing machine that is said to have been repleved from Ryan's shop earlier that morning and taken to Scott's place, a fist fight between the men developed. Ryan, they said, got much the better of the "dog fight," which drew a huge crowd. As he started to depart, Scott, picking himself from in front of an automobile where he had fallen, ripped out a switchblade knife, and plunged it into Ryan's right shoulder.

Witnesses whose names were given to police were James Mitchell, 2104 Boulevard Place, Apt. 1; Rice Blackburn, 2108 same street; Ernest Arnett, 307 West Twenty-first street.

The pressing machine that friends say caused the trouble has passed back and forth between the two men several times during the past year. About six months ago it became the subject of a suit between them. The suit was won by Ryan. Since it has been repleved to both by Charles Bowie, Highland Golf Club, original owner. It was in possession of Ryan until by court process it was transferred to Scott's shop, now in process of redecoration and repair.

COURT ORDERS DISSOLUTION OF LEADING INS. CO.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—(CNS)—The muddled affairs of the once great National Benefit Life Insurance Company will soon enter upon the final chapter, as Justice Daniel O'Donoghue, last week signed a decree ordering the company's dissolution and the liquidation of all assets.

This decision came after the receivers Clark and Bryan "threw cold water" on J. Finley Wilson's mutualization plan and on Tuesday August 29 petitioned the Court to liquidate the assets of the company.

The receivers asserted in their petition they had done everything to carry on the business of the National Benefit under modified agreements with more than 60,000 policyholders. They contend that as a result of factional dispute and adverse publicity in local newspapers, approximately 25,000 of the policies originally modified have lapsed.

The receivers also stated that they had made informal overtures to four companies (all white) to determine whether or not they could reinsure certain policies with them.

Negative replies were received from all four of the following companies: Metropolitan Life, New York; Life and Casualty, Nashville; National Life and Accident, Nashville; Washington National, Chicago.

Charging that the receivership of the National Benefit Life Insurance Company had been badly conducted and that the receivers had been dilatory in everything except collecting their own fees, J. Finley Wil-

Dismissed Suit Brings Church Harmony

Young Man, Playing with Gun That "Wasn't Loaded", Kills Self Instantly

Another gun that "wasn't loaded, went off in the hands of a careless, playful youth with fatal consequences to himself.

Cecil Stewart, 24 1412 Bradbury street, entered the home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Prince, 1320 Bradbury street Tuesday evening, picked up a .38 calibre revolver he found in the house, and smilingly inquired whether it was loaded. He was told that it was not.

According to the story told police by Stewart's hosts, and Raymond and Frances Talfer, 1413 Wade street, young Stewart began twirling the gun around his finger. Apparently jokingly, and in the best of spirits they say, the youth, with a remark "I could do almost anything", put the gun to his right temple. All were started to hear the report of a shot. Instantly Stewart fell to the floor dead.

Deputy Coroner E. R. Wilson made an investigation. His final report is pending.

Funeral services will be held Friday, 2 p. m., at the Patton Funeral Home.

Surviving are: a mother, Mrs. Ella Stewart; three sisters, Mrs. Hazel Means, Mrs. Flossie Rochester, and Mrs. Raymond Williams, New Castle, Pa.; two brothers, Col. Albert and Albert Stewart.

Interment will be in New Crown cemetery.

INDIANAPOLIS N. A. A. C. P. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY AT BIG MASS MEETING

After a period of inactivity extending over half a decade, the Indianapolis branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People banded back into the arena of public life last Sunday through the medium of a large mass meeting at the First Baptist church, North Indianapolis, under the guiding genius of Mrs. C. I. Taylor, wife of the late baseball magnate.

Association officials, guest speakers, hostess committee members and the audience generally each contributed a share of supporting pledges that leaders say insure the success of the association's membership drive.

Superiority Of Human Rights

Mr. Ransom in discussing the subject "Why the N. A. A. C. P. must stress on political, educational, civic, legal and other rights he should not forget that first and foremost he must have manhood rights. It is a God given right, he said, to be free to move and live where you please, and were it not for this organization, we would not now be living in Indiana.

The Negro's disinclination to help himself, Dr. Osborn told his hearers, is largely responsible for his present sad plight in which he numbers 10,000 unemployed in this city. If he is to advance, he counseled, in the face of white inherited materialism that has lost its soul and its conscience, he must not be discouraged in the belief that the white man is going to hand him free gratis, things that he has died and fought for.

200 Enrolled in Booster's Committee

Community singing led by Miss Eloise Keller, president of the local branch was a well received feature of the program.

Upwards of two hundred people, prominent in all phases of city life are banded into a booster's committee, who are pledged to a record enrollment of the city's population under the N. A. A. C. P. banner.

Mrs. Taylor, whose late husband still remains the idol of untold thousands of sport loving people throughout the Middle west, is chairman of the current membership drive. She is a highly trained social worker and her presence and efforts to advance the cause here, on dependable authority, in a large measure for Sunday's demonstration.

She in company with other officers of the association, have highly commended the work of Mrs. Ivaline Jones, Mrs. Violet Lewis, Miss Anna Lewis and Mrs. Flora Davis for their work as special assisting secretaries.

At the next public meeting during the three week's drive, Miss Elsie Austin will be the principal speaker at the Mt. Paran Baptist church, Sunday, September 10 at 3 p. m. The Rev. R. H. Hogan, vice-president of the branch, will preside. Music will be furnished by the Northside chorus, the Mt. Paran Male chorus and Mrs. Susie Dickens.

AIDS DRIVE

MRS. C. I. TAYLOR, widow of the man who gave this city its most famous baseball team, is here working day and night in the N. A. A. C. P. membership drive. A large number of admirers of her late husband are responding generously to her appeals.

NEGRO ARTIST WINS HIGHEST OF ART AWARDS

John W. Hardrick, widely known local artist, was awarded first prize Monday for the most outstanding work in the fine arts exhibition at the Indiana state fair.

The picture proved by far not only the greatest attraction for visitors of the exhibit, but has created the most interested and widespread discussion. It is a study portrait and figure finished in one sitting of a 19-year-old Negro woman.

This signal honor comes to Hardrick, 30, in recognition of his recognized remarkable ability. He is a graduate of the Herron Art Institute, here, and lives with his parents 2945 Paris avenue.

The outstanding award was made by Elmer Forseberg, head of the art school of the Chicago Art Institute, and Finnish consul to Chicago.

Runner-up in Tennis Tourney

MISS LESLYE HENDERSON, Indianapolis' representative in the recent Midwestern Tennis Tournament, in Chicago, furnished runner-up with Douglas Turner, ex-national champion. She is a teacher in the high school, Knoxville, Tenn., and sister of John Henderson, theatrical show producer. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Henderson, live at 341 W. 25th Street.

CHICAGO AND MEMPHIS ENTERTAIN NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

Boyd Baptist Group Does Huge Business Despite Depression

CHICAGO, Ill., September 5.—(Special)—The National Baptist Convention was told today, the first of its six-day annual meeting (September 5-10) being held at the Eight Regiment Armory, that the gross receipts of its publishing board for the past year amounted to $3000,000. Henry Allen Boyd, secretary, treasurer and manager of the publishing house, the largest of its kind among Negroes reported that the institution is invoiced at one million dollars and that eleven pieces of religious literature were distributed by it during the past year.

Interest in the convention program centers in the expected bitter battle for the presidency.

President J. W. Hulse of Kansas City is said to be prepared to fight again for retention of his office. Indications are that he is expected by some of the brethren to retire at this session and the hats of Dr. S. A. Pleasants of Houston, Texas, Dr. S. R. Prince, Texas, Dr. Ernest Hall of Cleveland, Rev. E. W. White of Baltimore, as well as Dr. C. L. Price of Denver, brother of Dr. S. R. Prince are well said to be in the ring. Dr. S. R. Prince is expected to bring in the largest delegation of visitors.

The women of the organization are to meet at Ebenezer Baptist church with Dr. J. H. L. Smith as entertaining pastor. Mrs. M. A. B. Fuller of Texas is president of the women's auxiliary. Numerous speakers national and local will appear before the body. There is a noticeable absence this year of suggestions that the two Baptists groups organize. Henry Allen Boyd of Nashville, head of the Sunday school Publishing Board is not to have any opposition for his post. His report of the extensive activities of his department is expected to be one of the high lights of the meeting.

Dr. L. K. Williams, Convention Urged To Take NRA Stand

MEMPHIS, Tenn., September 5.—(ANP)—Church goes and the populace in general are prepared for the coming next week of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., which will be in session here September 5-10.

Rev. Lacey Kirk Williams, pastor of Olivet Baptist church of Chicago, is president of the organization. No opposition is visible to Dr. Williams' return to the post which he has held for so long a period and signs point to a convention thoroughly harmonious.

Despite the depression which at one time threatened the security of the splendid publishing house located Nashville, Tenn., Dr. A. M. Townsend's report as secretary of the S. S. Publishing Board is expected to show a good volume of business for the past year.

Among the civic subjects which are expected to occupy the attention of the body will be the attitude of the convention toward the NRA. Dr. Williams has been asked to throw the support of his organization behind the Negro Industrial League program. Dr. George Haynes of New York is chairman of that organization. The Sunday School Congress will meet in connection with the National Baptist Convention for the first time in many years.

Harvey Sears Fined

Harvey Sears, chauffeur and popular man about town, was fined $5. and costs and given a suspended sentence of thirty days in jail by Judge Dewey Myers, Municipal court, room 3, Wednesday morning on his conviction of assault and battery charges which grew out of his alleged beating of his wife, Mrs. Helen Sears, several weeks ago in the apartment of Miss Octavia Bigbee, in the Douglas court, Twenty-first street and Boulevard Place. Mrs. Sears has filed suit for divorce.

Brazil Negroes Hold 50th Anniversary

BRAZIL, Sept. 4.—(Special to The Recorder)—Local citizens headed by Mayor Louderback turned out en masse Sunday at the Second Baptist church in celebration of the location in Brazil fifty years ago of its first colored pioneers. Guests of honor, all of whom are the only survivors of the original pioneer group were Mrs. Edna Boysaw, Mrs. Caroline Johnson, Mrs. Millie Watkins and Samuel Johnson.

Speakers on the program which included the mayor were T. W. Hutchinson, local attorney; Prof. E. M. Muncie; and Spear Pittman, age 94, oldest colored resident of Greencastle, who accompanied the choir of the St. Paul Baptist church of that city. The choir assisted in the musical part of the program.

Lad, in Fatal Fall from Truck, Buried

Lloyd Houchen, 12, 449 1/2 West Sixteenth Place, who was killed last Saturday when he fell from a garbage truck on which he is said to have been stealing a ride, was buried Wednesday.

Services were held at the Seventeenth Street Memorial Baptist church, by the Rev. G. W. Ford.

The boy was a student of school No. 17. Interment was in Wood Haven cemetery.

Surviving are a mother, Mrs. Alice Houchen; a brother and a sister.

"BY REQUEST"

MISS CATERINA JARBORO, whose sensational success in the role of "Aida" with the Chicago Opera Company this summer, will be starred again by Popular request in a presentation Saturday night of the opera as a regular part of their fall season's program.

"HEAD" THOMPSON STRICKEN AT THE TRIANON, BURIED

Last rites held for Issac (Head) Thompson who was stricken fatally at the Noble Sissle dance at the Trianon last Friday night brought a large crowd of sorrowing friends to Mt. Zion Baptist church Wednesday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Wines.

Thompson, age 51, when stricken near the close of the dance at the Trianon Ball Room where he was employed, was rushed by police who happened to be present to the city hospital after he completely lost consciousness before medical attention could be given him by Dr. S. A. Furniss, present in honor of Noble Sissle, a product of Indianapolis. Thompson died a few hours after he reached the hospital of a condition reported to be due to partial paralysis and high blood pressure of which he was a sufferer for several years.

ELECTION OF REV. JOHN HALL AS PASTOR SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH REUNITES MEMBERSHIP

Peace and harmony reign supreme once more among the pastor, officials and members of the Second Baptist church.

This became the priceless asset of the city's religious group recently as results of a lovefeast, in which serious differences between several factions were forgotten.

As result of the recently achieved harmony among the membership of Rev. Hall was elected pastor, the board of trustees re-organized and new plans formulated for recapturing the former dominant position held by the church.

The most serious threat to the church's continued existence arose several weeks ago in the form of a suit filed in the Marion Superior court by John Browder, widely known local attorney and chairman of the Trustee board of the church, asking that the Rev. John Hall, at that time acting pastor of the church and certain others, be restrained from holding meetings to elect a pastor without the sanction of the Trustee board; that they be ordered not to pay out money belonging to the church unless authorized by the Trustee board and that they cease efforts to charge the ritual in favor of so-called modernistic religious ideas.

Court Refuses Injunction

Judge Joseph Williams, Superior Court, Room 2, heard the case September 2, who promptly dismissed it upon motion for dismissal filed by attorneys for the defendants, showing that since there were no property rights involved the court lacked jurisdiction. The case of the complaining trustee however was seriously crippled from the start when the remaining four members of the Trustee board let it be known that they were not parties to the suit.

"I am very happy", said Judge Williams, in announcing his refusal to issue the desired injunction, to learn that the church has elected a pastor, and that all its members are reunited. It is my sincere wish that this very fine old church, for so many years a beacon light in this community, continue, with all the force of a united and loyal membership, to hold aloft its shining example of Christian fellowship. I have no doubts but that they will be entirely successful.

New Pastor Elected

At a Mass meeting of the congregation held last Thursday, Rev. Mr. Hall was elected, after three ballots had been cast by unanimous consent, with more than two hundred voting. A new board of trustees, which did not include Mr. Browder who has served for the past twelve years, was elected. The following are its members:—James Nicholson, Ernest Day, G. H. Gayhart, George W. Robinson and H. H. Abel, all of whom are prominent local citizens.

The Second Baptist church was established more than 80 years ago in 1846. Men who were prominent for their abilities have served as its pastors. The present structure erected 1912, replaced one built in 1864, at the close of the Civil war. It is valued at $10,000. Figures are estimated at $10,000. At one time its membership was placed at 2500.

Rev. Hall has been acting pastor since the death of the late Rev. B. J. F. Westbrook, September 2, 1932. His home is in Kentucky, where he attended and taught school. He is 25 years of age and will be installed with appropriate ceremonies September 21 to 24. Rev. Beverly is until that time.

MAN, SHOT 4 TIMES, WAGING GRIM BATTLE AGAINST DEATH AS POLICE HUNT ASSAILANT

A grim, determined battle is being waged by city hospital doctors to keep from the yawning jaws of death a man whose assailant has become the object of a police man hunt.

June Harris, 36, 721 North Senate avenue, his back and lungs punctured with four bullet wounds, infected by the man police are seeking, stubbornly refuses to bow to what at first seemed "the inevitable". Since his admission to the hospital, just before sunrise Wednesday morning, Harris has warded off almost certain death. Only remarkable medical skill and surgical skill of staff doctors has been able to keep Harris' condition from getting hopelessly beyond the "very critical" stage.

Shot At "Wild Party"

Harris was wounded by Henry (Junebug) Hunter, 33, during an argument at 324 Roanoke street over a lay in a craps game, which was the feature of a party that had been going on since early the previous evening.

According to witnesses, the Junebug, whose hand had been played from drawing his revolver, earlier in the evening by another tough "Guy", pulled his gun and fired in the crowded house before spectators realized what was happening. Hunter dashing through the rear door of the house and picking up the "bag", containing about $30.00, dragged Alice Mae Stevens, with him. Later police learned that Hunter drove her by her home, 509 North Senate avenue and pushing her out, left "in high".

Jasper Allen, Clarence and "Fairy" Thomas, next door neighbors and visitors at the party, were taken into custody by police for questioning. Hunter, detectives say, is not unknown in police records.

fer business. For the past six months he was employed by Sea Ferguson at the ball room as ticket taker.

Funeral services were in charge of the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

Surviving: Mr. Thompson, who lived at 715 Ogden street, are an estranged wife, Mrs. Anna Thompson and a daughter.

MRS. E. ALSUP, 'WAYNE' CHURCH WORKER, BURIED

FT. WAYNE, Sept. 1.—(Special to The Recorder)—Fitting tributes in speech, song, flowers and a profusion of messages of condolences from all sections of the country marked the funeral services of Mrs. Ella D. Alsup, outstanding leader in the religious, civic and social life of this community. A great throng of people, including distinguished persons from many large nearby cities, flocked to capacity the Mount Olive Baptist church for the rites, conducted by Rev. J. Plus Barbour, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Graham Jordan and Rev. G. L. Hayden, pastor of Turner Chapel. Solos were sung by Mrs. Millie D. Hoffman, Lafayette, president of the Indiana State Association of Negro Musicians; Miss Myra Ridley; Mrs. Gertrude McDonald; and Preston A. Lyons. A duet was rendered by Mrs. Elsie Dixie and Mrs. Jesse Lyons. Mrs. Ethel Beckerstaff was organist.

She was a charter member of Mount Olive Baptist Church and belonged to many of the auxiliaries of the church. She had been interested in Missionary Work for many years.

She was a member of the Fort Wayne Mothers Club and the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, Post 148, conducted a ritualistic ceremony at the funeral.

Survivors

Surviving are the following: John Alsup, Sr., husband; John Alsup, Jr., son; Miss Elma E. Alsup, daughter, who is Girls Work Secretary of the Wheatley Social Center and Honorary President of the Indiana State Association of Negro Musicians; Quilla Smith, a brother; The Misses Della and Ella Belle Silance, of Lafayette, Indiana, nieces; Louis N. Silance and Dr. Clyde R. Silance of Indianapolis, nephews.

ORA WASHINGTON, DICK HUDLIN WIN AT CHICAGO

DICK HUDLIN, ORA WASHINGTON WIN 1933 MIDWESTERN TITLES IN CHICAGO TENNIS MEET

Leslye Henderson in Finals of Mixed Doubles With Douglass Turner; Meet May Come Here Next Year

(By LEE A. JOHNSON, Sports Editor)

CHICAGO, September 4.—The Annual Midwestern Tennis tournament was brought to a dramatic close here yesterday when Richard Hudlin, St. Louis, successfully defended his title against Ted Thompson, Washington, D. C., in a brilliant four set match 6-4, 7-5, 1-6, and 6-4, before a crowd of local and out-of-town visitors.

Critics believe that Thompson had underrated Hudlin's strength and attempted to wear him down by easing up at the start of the match. It was the third set that Thompson was himself by repeatedly taking a commanding position at the net and made placement after placement, and at the end of the fifth game was leading five love. He tossed a game to Hudlin in attempt to tire him and went on to win the set at six one.

In the fourth set the lead saw sawed from one to the other until Hudlin broke through at four all to win his service and the match. This was the first time that Hudlin has ever defeated Ted Thompson.

TURNER UPSET

The fireworks began in the semi-finals when Douglass Turner, Chicago the favorite, was eliminated by the tricky Ted Thompson in a gruesome 5-set match 6-1, 6-4, 1-6, 4-6, 6-3. It was this match that sent the customers away trying to figure out how that feat was done by the invincible eastern rival of the famous "Doug" Turner. Even after that, it was a foregone conclusion that Hudlin would lose his title to the easterner.

Ora Washington in Triple Feat

Ora Washington, Philadelphia, won the women's singles title that was won last year by Miss Fredonia Bundy, Indianapolis, 1932. In winning the title this year Miss Washington defeated the lone Indianapolis entrant, Miss Leslye Henderson, Indianapolis, in the semi-finals 6-0, 6-2, and defeating Miss Isadore Channels, Roanoke, Va., in the finals, 6-0, 6-2. Then she paired with Mother Seames, Chicago, to win the women's doubles title from Mrs. Ewell and Miss Attaway of Chicago, 6-3, 6-0, and paired with Ted Thompson to defeat Douglass Turner and Leslye Henderson in the finals of the mixed doubles 6-1, 7-5.

Turner-Hudlin Win Doubles
Douglass Turner and Richard Hudlin had little trouble in defeating Ted Thompson and Dr. O. B. Williams in the finals of the men's doubles winning as they saw 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. Both Hudlin and Turner have played in several large meets together and were too well balanced a team for the Williams-Thompson combination.

Young Turner Wins

Eugene Turner, young brother of Douglass, won the junior title from Waddell in and extra set match 6-3, 3-6, 6-1. Both juniors played good tennis, and put all they had in the match. Waddell began to tire and Turner took advantage for clear placements. This was the second time that he has won the junior title. Next year he will be ineligible for the division. G. Lewis defeated A. George for the boys title in straight sets 6-1, 6-3.

Next year the meet may be held in Indianapolis. It was announced that an invitation had been received from the "Hoosier" capital to bring the tournament to that city in 1934. The body will announce its decision later. Atty. Frank Sommers, East St. Louis, is the president of the Midwestern Ass'n.

CHICAGO AWAITS ALL STAR BASE-BALL CLASSIC

(By J. L. CLARK)

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(Special)—The East-West baseball classic to be played at Comiskey Field in Chicago will attract thousands of World Fair visitors Sunday, September 10th when two teams assembled from various parts of the country shall engage in a series.

Some of the stars that will be in action representing the west are Turkey Stears, American Giants, Willie Foster, American Giant, Suttles, Giles, Wells, Chet Brewer.

The eastern team will include such players as Satchell Paige, Bill Holland, Porter Charleston, Oscar Charleston, Bell, Pats Jenkins, Ted Page, Geo. Scales, Lundy, Russell, Judy Johnson, and many other of the greatest stars in Negro baseball circles.

Already the polling has reached a surprising wide spread interest and indications point to a filled park.

The officials of the National Negro League are ready to handle the large crowds, and are completing all arrangements to have the teams on the field when the game is called at three o'clock.

ON THE AIR

At present Ethel Water's new schedule on her return to the air is on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 4:30 and 6:15 P. M. respectively.

At 5:30 Eva Taylor appears on the NBC hook-up on Mondays also.

The Southern Singers continue to be a favorite with the morning radio fans, with their distinctive style of music.

A local radio weekly carries the following story:

"Not long ago a Negro applied to Al Jolson for a job. He told Jolson that he had a large family, in need of food; that he was talented, had written a show, book, music and lyrics and need $25,000 to finance it. Jolson gave him the money and never went to see the opening. The show, incidentally was flop and Jolson never has seen the man he helped since."

If that is true, Jolson either had confidence in the man and his yarn, or he didn't care a rap about $25,000.

Tuesday, August 22, the Mills Brothers made their formal debut at 7:30 P. M. for the first of a series of bi-weekly fifteen-minute programs, every Tuesday and Thursday evening at the same time. Stations affiliated with the Columbia network are their outlets.

Browns Shut Out 1 to 0 by Red Devils

BROWNS SHUT OUT 14 G. L. CROFTON Ky., Sept. 3.—(Special)—The Crofton Browns were defeated by the Providence Red Devils last Sunday in one of the most brilliant shutout games that the fans here have ever seen. The final score being 1 to 0 did not mar the determination of the Browns as they shall attempt to get revenge from the fast Beaver Dam club.

This was the first shutout the Browns have ever had in their history and they invite the strongest of baseball teams to get in touch with J. T. Bell, general delivery for games.

The Crofton Panthers, the second team has played through a long schedule with a good record. The credit was due to the work of Herbert Dulin who has managed the seconds. The seconds are scheduled to play at Bradley's Park next Sunday.

Haynes Defeated by Maxie Rosenbloom

By J. CULLEN FENTRESS
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 5.—(WS)—The highly touted Leroy Haynes, called the coast's "Black Max Bear", went down before the backhand and slapping onslaught of Slapsie-Maxie Rosenbloom last Wednesday night in the main event, at the Olympic Auditorium.

Probably the only thing that could be said in Haynes' favor would be the fact that he had the method of whipping Rosenbloom down pat but he didn't have the weapons. He stayed right on top of lightweight "kings", carrying the fight to him all the way.

Maxie's left hand style in Haynes' face and at times he would jab and then throw a hard slap with his right hand to either Haynes' head or face.

Rosenbloom won seven of the ten rounds. They say that Rosenbloom does his training in the night spots. I don't know whether that is true or not but I do know that if he can

Jim Taylor and the team he took to Detroit, which was making a good showing in the league until the boys quit on him down south.

CALIFORNIA LAD TO CARRY ON AT NORTHWESTERN U.

MONROVIA, Calif.—(WS)—Cornelius Pressley, stellar four letter athlete, of Monrovia high school, left here last Saturday night by motor for Evanston, Ill., where he plans to enter school this fall. He expects to start his college work at Northwestern and will try to follow in the footsteps of Sam Taylor and Tom Verdell of football fame in that school.

For four years Pressley has been the talk of the prep circles in Southern California. His exploits in football and track have made him one of the best known athletes in local high schools and he has been a fair enough competitor in baseball and basketball to win his high school letters in these sports.

Paced by this large prep athlete, Monrovia high won the Foothill League championship last year. He was the mainstay of the team and his sensational running yanked his team from defeat on a number of occasions last year. His performances in the sprints and hurdle races kept his school in front during the dual meet season and it was not until the sectional meets of the state that he met defeat last season.

Pressley has run the high hurdles in less than 15 seconds consistently and has run the lows in less than 25 seconds. At one time he ran the 220 yards in 24.9 seconds. Built like a battering ram, he has the speed to strike terror in the hearts of his opponents when he is forced to use it. His value as a football player is easily seen when it is realized that he stands 5 ft. 7 in. all and weighs almost 185. With this weight and speed he may be the answer to Big Ten followers for a colored boy who can hold his own in that fast company. People in his home town believe that he has the goods for that team or other in the country for that matter.

LARGE CROWDS SEE NEW CHAMP CROWNED AT SUNSET HILLS IN NATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

Mrs. Lucy Williams Places Second in Women's Division; James Denny Wins Prize in 3rd Flight

(By LEE A. JOHNSON)

(Sunset Hills Country Club) CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—A large holiday setting formed the back ground for the 8th Annual Open championships of the United Golf Association at the beautiful Sunset Hills course.

From the south came a tanned golfer who miraculously won the open championship for 1933. Howard Wheeler, Atlanta, showed a card of 294 that astounded the gallery. Edison Marshall, New Orleans came in for second money with a 297, Solomon Hughes, Gadsden, Ala., shot 302 for third honors, Robert Ball, Chicago, totaled 303, John Denny, Ashville, N. C. 304, John Hodge, Nashville, 306, Hugh Smith, Chicago, 308.

The Prize money was distributed as follows: 1st, $100.00; 2nd, $65; 3rd, $35.00; 4th, $20.00; 5th, $15.00; 6th, $10.00; 7th, $5.00.

The new champion had a marvelous approach game and was very brilliant throughout the meet. Marshall displayed even a more splendid game but a tricky green and fairway robbed him of the difference in strokes.

Indianapolis Girl Second
Indianapolis was well represented in the golf tourney this year, and as usual brought back some of the best. Mrs. Lucy Williams came in second best to Julia Siler, St. Louis, Mo., with a total of 108, Mrs. Siler shot 106. Marie Thompson, Chicago, shot 111, Mrs. Ella Abel another local player shot 115. Mrs. Bradley also of Indianapolis had shot 66 out and her score coming in had not been reported, but she did not excel any of the above scores.

Many Locals Entered
James Denny was the only male to figure in on the spoils in the various flights. He defeated Andrew Sharpe, another local, in the semi-finals of the third flight and lost in the finals to L. Kenesly, New York 2 up 1 to go.

The local golfers qualified as follows: Sea Ferguson, 40-43 to total 83; Henry Flemming, 44-43 to total 87; James Denny, 48-52 for a total of 100; Andrew Sharpe, 43-55 to total 98; Hayden Hibbitt, 54-48 to total 102.

Eliminations: 3rd flight; A. Sharpe (d) C. Oglesby 6 and 5; A. Sharpe (d) G. Tanksley, 5 and 4; J. Denny (d) O. Bolton, 4 and 3; J. Denny (d) B. Church, 10 and 8, semi-finals; J. Denny (d) A. Sharpe 4 and 3 Finals J. Denny lost to Kenesly, 4th flight, H. Hibbitt (d) F. Cade 7 and 6; A. Payne (d) H. Hibbitt 4 and 2; 1st flight; E. Jenkins (d) H. Flemming 5 and 4; I. Ellis (d) S. Ferguson, 2 and 1.

Tourney to Detroit
The 1934 tourney was awarded to Detroit after the officials had read and received several offers. The body voted to accept the Detroit offer.

Amateur Trophies Awarded
Congressman Oscar DePriest made a short presentation speech and presented the awards to all of the winners of the many championships. W. Spann, Chicago, was the low medalist of the amateurs and was presented the Henry P. Johnson memorial trophy. I. Ellis won the first flight championship, L. Ferguson, Chicago, was runner-up, G. Adams, Washington, D. C., won the second flight championship, G. Gray, Chicago, was the runner-up, L. Kenesly, New York, won the third flight with J. Denny, Indianapolis runnerup.

WHITENS and LIGHTENS the SKIN

in 1/2 the time at 1/2 the cost

Don't waste time and money with weak, ordinary bleaches. Use Black and White Bleaching Cream. It has the exclusive "Double Strength" feature, sufficient power to penetrate to the skin's fourth layer where coloring is regulated. That's why it lightens and whitens the skin in half the time at half the cost and clears up bumps and blemishes quicker than anything you ever used before.

Be sure to ask for Genuine Black and White Bleaching Cream, large opal jar 50c, trial size 10c. There's nothing just as good. And remember, for best results always use Black and White Skin Soap (25c) before you apply this wonderful bleaching cream.

Visit C. and K. Shoe Stores for Shoes of Much Quality, Comfort, Snap and Style

Now that Fall has set in, many young men and women will either be entering college for the first time or returning to school. It has always been the custom, throughout many years, that at the beginning of the school year, that new shoes are bought for wear to school.

Out of the many shoe stores in the city for men and boys, there is one store, the C. and K. Shoe Store, located at 126 North Pennsylvania street, where the college man will find just the shoe he is looking for.

The C. and K. Shoe Store carries a complete line of styles in the Central Gold Standard brand shoe, which sells for $3.45, $3.95 and $4.95. That smart looking Brite Shine oxford may be purchased there for $5. Don't forget, too, that the C. and K. Store carries the Collegiate and Diplomat.

Every pair of shoes, purchased at the C. and K. Shoe Store carries a Solid Leather guarantee, which shows that the store assures quality to its buying public.

A specialty of the store is its Arch Support shoe, which is such a relief to tired, tender feet, in calfskin, kidskin and genuine kangaroo. For the young man the C. and K. Store offers snap and style.

The store is home-owned, and managed by two experienced shoe salesmen, Cline and Keeler. Try their shoes.

Visits in Lebanon Honored at Club

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Patterson, Mrs. Ethel Brewington and Mrs. Veronica McQueen motored to Lebanon, on last Tuesday, where Mrs. Brewington and Mrs. McQueen spent the week as guests of Mrs. Novella King.

On Thursday, the Semper Fidelis club was entertained by Mrs. Iva Brown in Frankfort, having as its honored guests, Mrs. Brewington and Mrs. McQueen.

A delicious luncheon was served and covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Lydia King of Lebanon is president of the club. Other members are: Mesdames Novella King, Alice Carpenter, Eliza King, Stella Brown, Lula Tapp and Maude Herling.

Little Miss Veronica McQueen, granddaughter of Mrs. McQueen, returned home, Friday, after a two week's visit in Lebanon as guest of little Miss Eugenia King, who is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry King of Lebanon.

Popular Members of Younger Set Reveal Secret Marriage After Over Two Years

On last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Jason Finnell in West 27th street entertained with an announcement bridge party, honoring her niece, Mrs. Laudee W. Williams Wiggins, who was married on December 22, 1931 in Greenfield, Ind., to Forrest Oran Wiggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, 507 West 26th street.

The house was artistically decorated and unique favors of miniature wedding bands with the date of the marriage were given each guest. Dainty two course luncheon was served. Beautiful prizes were given, which were awarded Mrs. Merle Craig and Miss Anna Stout.

Among other affairs given for Mrs. Wiggins were a personal shower by Mrs. Merle Craig and sister, Miss Mary Dangerfield at their home in West 26th street on last Friday afternoon; a linen shower on last Saturday afternoon by Miss Anna Stout at the home of Mrs. Freda Washington in Roache street; and a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Charles W. Davis at her home, in Boulevard place on last Tuesday evening.

The bride and groom are popular members of the younger set in Indianapolis. Mrs. Wiggins is a graduate of Butler university and attended Indiana university. The groom is graduate of Butler and received his master degree from the University of Wisconsin.

The couple will reside in Charlotte, N. C.

Attends Meet

She will present a scholarship of $50 and the Delta key to Miss Mildred Keller, who made one of the high scholarly records, last school year at West Virginia State college.

Club Has Series of Speakers at Meets

An outstanding club, in this city among young men, is the El Amigo club, which meets every Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A.

The club, which always caters to that which is uplifting or beneficial to the race and community, had several members to act as ushers on National Artist night during the National Association of Negro Musicians meet.

Below are the following excerpts from one of the club's plans or projects, as recorded by John Rutledge, journalist of the club.

In its re-adjustment of club routine, the El Amigos club has begun with a series of speakers.

Outstanding among the participants are the Hon. Henry J. Richardson, Jr., and the versatile Dr. B. A. Osbourne.

Mr. Richardson's offering is recorded as club history and his doctrine is carried, outside of the members' social life, as a foundation to the fundamentals of the real side of life.

At the following meeting, Dr. Osbourne addressed the club. He outlined a plan, that if carried out, would give the Negro an economic independence.

One plan was to arouse the consumer, so that Negro trade would be assured, and that colored merchants give to the buying public, quality merchandise, at reasonable prices, and to advertise extensively.

Another plan was to utilize the farmhands, so that Negro stores, markets and canneries could operate on a commercial scale, independent of white competition.

With leaders, such as these endorsing the practical side of life, instead of the pseudo leaders, who advocate social equality, the Negro will find himself with an economic freedom, and through that, channels of life will be open to him and his own merits.

Lets all give head to the new and real leaders of today. The main idea though, is to select one international leader and work through his captains, as a mass of united people. In that way, the Negro will find the freedom he yearns for. On Wednesday, August 23, the El Amigo club had an open forum at the Y. M. C. A.

Robert Wells, president; Gustave Nealing, chairman of the Literary committee.

Club Honors Its Members On Birthdays

Out in West Indianapolis, recently, a pretty party was given by the Semper Fidelis Girls' club, with Miss Effie Moran as hostess at her home, 2229 Howard street. The affair was given in honor of the members of the club, whose birthdays are in August.

The house was beautifully decorated in the club colors, orchid and green, and cut flowers. Games and dancing were features of the evening. A dainty repast was served.

Aside from the decorations, the affair was enhanced by the lovely gowns, worn by the guests. Miss Anna L. Morris, sponsor of the club, was beautiful in pink crepe with deep rose accessories. Miss Merle Sargent, secretary, was lovely in an all white creation with rhinestone accessories. Miss Leora Holiday was lovely in black chiffon. Miss Helen Wesley wore a beautiful printed chiffon. All were the honored guests.

Miss Clove Morris, president, was charming in black lace with coral accessories. Miss Olyna Shively was lovely in a gown of blue taffeta. Miss Marie Garvin, co-sponsor, was lovely in a black satin gown with all white accessories. Miss Essie Faulks wore a beautiful gown of yellow embroidered chiffon and taffeta. Miss Dorothy Lyles was charming in printed organdy. Miss Margaret Heater wore a beautiful gown of plaid organdy. Miss Virginia Morton was lovely in white organdy, and Miss Alberta Shively in blue organdy. Miss Moran, the hostess, was charming in green organdy and white accessories.

Misses Ethel Bradley, Viola Spencer, Mary Beasley and Louise Smith were special guests. Other guests included: Messrs. Robert Poole, Willis Donaldson, William Yarbo, Amos Blevins, Robert Wilkins, Acey Lee, Howard Shively, Melvin Anderson, Earl Golder, Charles Williams, Eugene Garvin, James Holiday, Claude Caldwell, Willie Caldwell, Edward Heater. The party lasted into the wee hours of the morning.

Miss Moran was assisted by her mother, Mrs. P. McDamon.

McMillans Have Guests of Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Carey McMillan, 245 Maple Road had as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Amos Arter of Beaumont, Texas.

Among the many social affairs given in their honor were: a dinner party by Dr. and Mrs. Fernie King; a house party by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scarber; and a house party by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Burley in Richmond, Ind.

The Arters, accompanied by their hostess, Mrs. McMillan, attended the World's Fair in Chicago.

On their return to Indianapolis.

"RELIGION IS A DRUG", HOWARD U. PRES., SAYS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 2.—(Special to The Recorder)—Religion is an opiate (a drug) upon all people and especially upon the Negro race, declared Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard university and foremost champion of liberalism, in an impassioned address last night before a large group of representative local citizens, gathered at the Michigan Avenue Y. M. C. A. in celebration of its tenth anniversary.

Dr. Johnson, who held his audience spellbound as he struck boldly at what conventional thought regards as an indispensable support of modern civilization, said, in discussing his subject, "Religion and Poverty," "even though people have been enslaved from time immemorial by the device of religion, they nevertheless, today appear to be satisfied with present conditions and depend upon an unseen and unknown God to help them, to do for them what they should do for themselves."

Perplexed Audience
His audience appeared much perplexed as the speaker, deftly poisoning his verbal thrusts in a rising crescendo of gripping eloquence, offered suggestion after suggestion of popularity associated with Communism. "It has been said by some," he said "that the best thing for the poor people to do is to give up religion entirely. I can say without fear, that there has been enough proof in the history of religion to justify men of sound minds in deliberating whether religion is an opiate."

"There is a raw subtle element in religion unique in leading one to believe that God will take care of you. It has been almost universally held by the poor, who believe that God when he was called upon would answer because, as they say "I am His child." People have failed, because of this belief, to do for themselves what intelligent people would have done, because they falsely believed that in some mysterious way prayer was an alleviator to get the thing that they would otherwise have to struggle to get through their own efforts.

"In this people are wrong and it is up to us to set them right."
The Good of Religion

In a spirit of fairness, Dr. Johnson pointed out that religion has its credits as well as its debits. In tracing its good influences, he stated "no one can say that religion has not been concerned with the poor. When I think of my own people there is nothing in the history of our entire life so beautiful as our devotion to God. During the darkest days of slavery, our delivery came from God through prayer. Today, it helps us to have better homes, better standing in the community, gives us jobs and other things we stand in need of."

Dr. Johnson failed to advise his hearers to discard religion directly. He left them in some what of a quandary. Their doubts, however, as to his stand, he said he would remove at a later date when he could finish his discourse.

Tribute to Founder

William H. Jackson, executive secretary and founder of the Y. was the recipient of a profusion of felicitations, in a brilliant program that included a history of the "Y". It had its first home in an old fashioned abandoned church opened January, 1924 by Mr. Jackson. A ladies auxiliary was added under the guiding genius of his wife. In their drive 1924, $100,000 was raised. Under the leadership of Mr. Jackson, the "Y", in 1928 moved into a newly built and modernly equipped building at 535 Michigan avenue, their present home.

Many Guests of Honor
The anniversary program was completed with a male chorus of the "Y" in classical and spiritual numbers; addresses by Rev. W. H. Horner; C. H. Maloney, attorney; Rev. M. E. Jackson; Reverends E. J. Echols, S. C. Spottswood and O. H. Brown. Introduction of the speaker and reading of telegrams was made by Rev. S. O. B. Johnson. Offertory by J. E. Smith. A. N. Cotton, in his remarks to the audience commented upon the lives of Dr. Johnson, Julius Rosenwald who gave $25,000, Mr. and Mrs. Mathews said "Happy are the people who put the center of their lives outside themselves."

Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. George B. Mathews, William H. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Short, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed, Miss Julia Sherman, Mrs. Evelyn Choate. Randolph S. Lane, chairman of the board of managers, presided.

G. J. S.—I cannot find my husband's gun, is the party I suspect guilty?
Ans: The party whom you suspect is INNOCENT before your husband's death he sold his gun to tall, light, person with blue eyes. The young boy under suspicion had nothing to do with the disappearance of the gun.

G. W. M.—Describe my future possibilities of general accumulation that is vital to man?
Ans: 1. An education that is SECOND TO NONE. 2. An established business conducted in conjunction with your EDUCATION. 3. An eventual SOCIAL CAREER brought about through CHURCH FRIENDS AND CHURCH AFFAIRS. 4. Last but not least an HONOR to your RACE and a STRIKING EXAMPLE of a HOME LOVING HUSBAND and FATHER.

C. H. W.—A young gentleman who wants to meet me and whom I want to meet also, will we learn to like each other well?
Ans: Don't Pin TO MUCH FAITH in AN OUT OF TOWN BOY whom you have never met. You will Like him. I will let you find out for YOURSELF just why you will NOT LOVE HIM.

M. H. D.—Will I get an interest in this estate?
ANS: LEGAL RED TAPE will prevent you from getting your SHARE of your DEAD BROTHERS estate in the IMMEDIATE FUTURE. It will be settled in 1934.

S. F.—Should I go back to the friend I was with 6 years?
Ans: SILLY. Why should you go back to the friend with whom you were SO UNHAPPY for six years. It would profit you more to make a change of cities.

B. R. B.—Will I get married soon and will I marry the party I think?
Ans: I advise no woman to marry a man she thinks she loves. You are not in love with this man you only THINK you are. A marriage appears in your life in 34 or 35 but to ANOTHER PERSON.

R. L. J.—Have the woman who is rooming with us any money?
Ans: She did at one time but she too was hit by the DEPRESSION HER WORLDLY POSSESSIONS at the present time are DECIDEDLY SMALL.

S. P.—Does my son want to come home or is it conditions that keep him from coming home?
Ans: A WOMAN in the life of your son is keeping him from returning home at the present time. He is leading a soft easy life and he hasn't the BACKBONE to QUIT IT.

L. W.—Will I ever become a mother, if so when?
Ans: It will be SEVERAL YEARS before you give birth to a SON.

N. P.—I received your Astrology Reading and was well pleased I will send a quarter for a nother one in a week or two. Now will you be kind enough to tell me the party who changed the tires on my car?
Ans: A person with the initials of W. T. did the TRICK. His FORD ROADSTER is the SAME ONE that you ATTENDED a FOOTBALL GAME in last FALL.

Paul Robeson, Seeking "Black Greatness" Bans Italian, French, German Music

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 6.—(CNS)—London, England, reporters say that Paul Robeson has declared his intention of never again singing in Italian, French or German, instead he is said to be looking for a "Great Russian Opera or play, or some great Hebrew or Chinese work, which he says he will be able to render with the necessary degree of understanding."

"I do not understand the psychology or philosophy of the French man, German or Italian. Their history has nothing in common with the history of my slave-ancestors. So I will not sing their music, nor the songs of their ancestors... The trouble with the American Negro is that he has in inferiority complex. He fails to realize that he comes of a great ancestry linked with the great races of the Orient... What he should do is try for

'black greatness' and not an imitation of 'white greatness.' I am more than ever convinced that the African civilization dates back to the times when Oriental culture, including that from China, began to influence the Western world. I believe where the Afro-American made his mistake was when he began trying to mimic the West instead of developing the really great tendencies he inherited from the East. I believe the Negro can achieve his former greatness only if he learns to follow his natural tendencies, and ceases trying to master the greatness of the West. My own instincts are Asiatic.
